STUDENT CONDUCT AND WELFARE COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION

SR-10-11-04 SCWC

Recommends the addition of the following to the Marshall University 2010-2011 Student Handbook, Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities, Sanctions, section A. Expulsion on page 64 and section B. Suspension on page 65 with new language shown in bold font.

A. Expulsion:

Termination of all student status, including any remaining right or privilege to receive some benefit or recognition or certification. Conditions for re-admission may be established only through written appeal to the President no sooner than one complete calendar year from the date the expulsion was placed in effect. During the expulsion, the person is barred from coming onto or using University property and facilities. The action will appear on the student's official transcript until such time as an appeal is made to and granted by the President to terminate the expulsion. Students who are expelled from the University during the course of a semester forfeit any rights to a refund of tuition and fees.

B. Suspension:

This action involves separation of the student from the University as specified by the Judicial Board of the Office of Judicial Affairs for a definite stated period of time up to one academic year. Condition on resumption of activities, if any, also may be imposed. Notification appears on the student's official transcript until the expiration of the sanction. A suspended student may apply for re-admission to the University through the Office of Judicial Affairs at the end of the suspension period specified by the judicial action. The Office of Judicial Affairs may deny readmission in those instances where the suspended student fails to demonstrate a positive change in behavior which indicates that the suspended student is prepared to become again a responsible member of the University community. Numerous resource persons and agencies may be used to assist the student in identifying and clarifying experiences, goals, educational and career choices, and other personal objectives. Students who are suspended from the University during the course of a semester forfeit any rights to a refund of tuition and fees.

RATIONALE:

There is currently no written policy regarding the forfeiture of tuition and fees for students who merit suspension or expulsion through violation of the student code of conduct.
